Indoor Activities:

- Let's build a puzzle. Get one of your puzzles, then ask a parent to hide the pieces around in the room. Go around and each time you find a puzzle piece, take it to a table until you complete the puzzle.

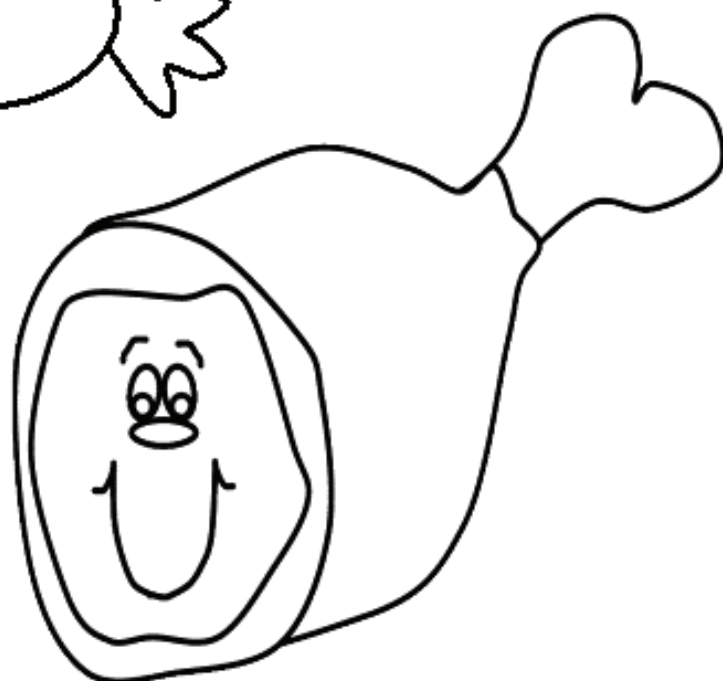

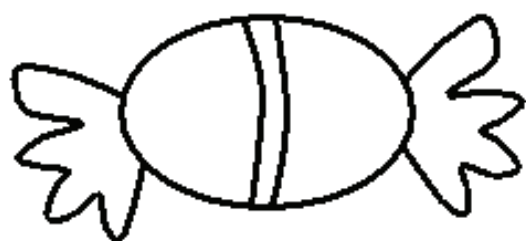

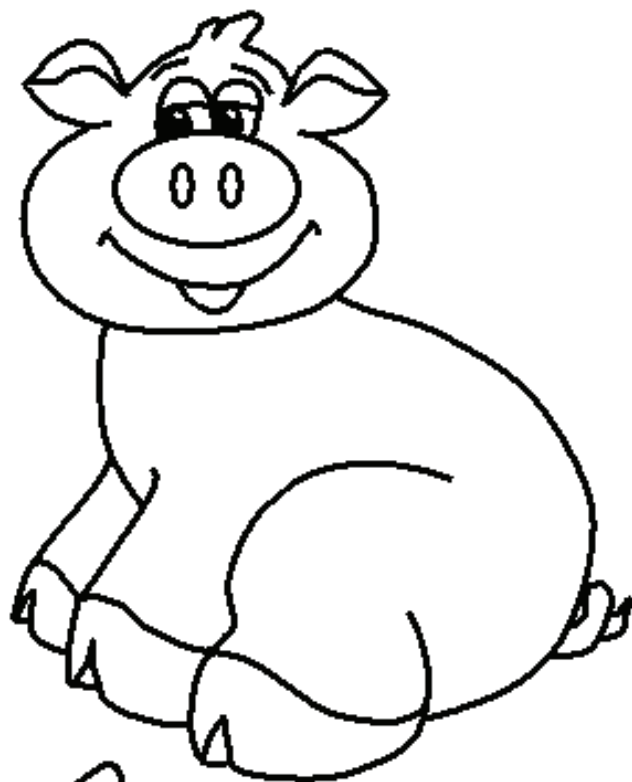

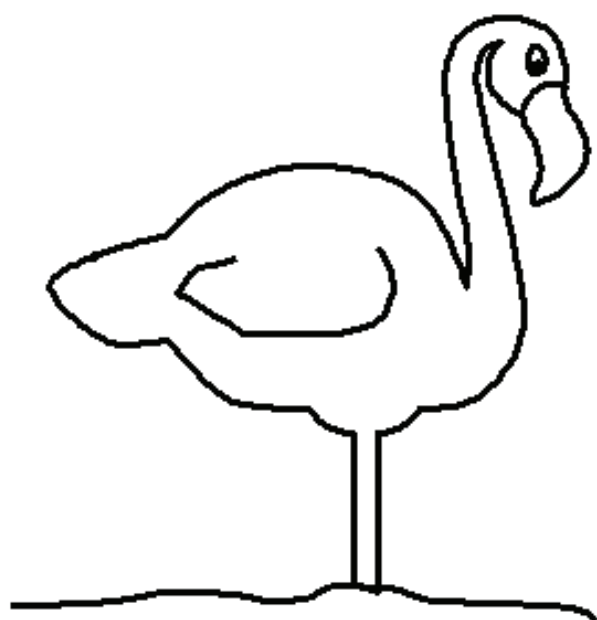

Outdoor Activities

- Normally we would read indoors, but since the weather is extremely nice, grab your favorite books and take them outside to read. It is nice to enjoy the nature around us by doing something peaceful outdoors every once in a while.

Blessings,
Mrs. Blancarte
